(PRWeb) February 21, 2007 -- Aquamantra®, Natural Spring Water, announces the company's participation at the Platinum Luxury Suite Gifting Event celebrating the 2007 Oscar® Awards Ceremony on February the 23rd and 24th. Nominees can taste what many are dubbing 'bottled magic' that will give them the edge.

Rising to the occasion like many of this year's Oscar nominees, Aquamantra® has emerged onto the beverage scene as one of the leading high-end bottled waters. Demand in Hollywood for the delicious tasting natural spring water, is at an all time high.

The reason for Aquamantra's rapid rise to success is that each bottle contains more than just water. Aquamantra® is the only bottle of water on the market that has a life enhancing mantra on its exquisitely designed label. Currently, three mantras; 'I Am Loved™', 'I Am Lucky™' and 'I Am Healthy™' adorn three different bottles. By saying or thinking the positive affirmations and then drinking from the bottle the consumer exudes positive energy, creating an attraction for love, luck or health into their life.

Creator of Aquamantra®, Alexandra Teklak wants her inspiring drink to remind people that: "You are what you think' and now you are what you drink."

Teklak created Aquamantra® based on the scientific work-studies of Dr. Masaru Emoto, who over the past nine years has proven, through the use of hyper-powerful microscopes, that words written on bottles of water can affect the water's molecular structure. His work is photographically documented in his book "Hidden Messages in Water."

Teklak discovered Dr. Emoto's work while watching the popular movie, "What the Bleep Do We Know?", released in 2004. Motivated by the movie's messages, Teklak created Aquamantra®.

"It's a remarkable gift from the universe, using mantras or affirmations to manifest anything into your life. Combining this with water creates the elixir of life," says Teklak. "We are all Creators of our reality and we hope the Oscar winners of 2007 will appreciate a little 'I AM LUCKY' from Aquamantra."

Teklak herself is proof that thoughts can create reality. Little less than a year ago, Aquamantra® was a start up company in Orange County. Today, Aquamantra® is going to Hollywood to mix with the best the movie world has to offer. Teklak is thrilled to be asked to be a part of Platinum Luxury Suites and hopes everyone at the Oscars gets to taste Aquamantra® and take home the statue.
