"Aquamantra especially supports empowering our youth to be full participants and active creators of their lives," said Aquamantra founder, Alexandra Teklak.

Aquamantra combines Natural Spring Water, packaging and Quantum Physics to inspire consumers to think, then drink. At a time when many beverage companies are trying new ingredients to lure consumers to their products, Aquamantra Creator, Alexandra Teklak, is combining the simple ingredients of water and the power of positive thoughts to create a unique and revolutionary bottled water. Instead of flavors, Aquamantra currently has three distinct bottled water "mantras" to identify their current line:

"I Am Healthy" "I Am Loved" "I Am Lucky"

Aquamantra's mission is to encourage and remind people that, "You are What You think and You Are What You Drink". By combining positive affirmations also known as "mantras", with the engaging packaging, each bottle becomes a tool to remind the consumer to think consciously about being "Healthy", "Lucky" and/or "Loved". The best part about this product is that it's NOT a gimmick...there is valuable documented science to back it up.

After seeing the popular movie, "What The Bleep Do We Know?", which was released in 2004, Alexandra Teklak, founder and creator of Aquamantra, took the messages in this film to heart and to a business idea that's exploding out of Orange County, CA.

The movie is a docu-drama which includes eight world-renowned scientists who discuss the underlying quantum uncertainties of our world and identify how reality is created by us with every thought we have. Dr. Masaru Emoto, who was featured in the movie, has conducted extensive research over the past nine years with dramatic results of how thoughts and words written on the containers of water can affect the molecular structure of water. By utilizing a very high-powered microscope, Dr. Emoto has photographically documented the changes as seen in his book series, "Hidden Messages in Water."

Based on this premise, Aquamantra combined Emoto's theories, Quantum Physics, affirmations and beautifully crafted packaging to create a unique line of bottled water that truly emanates Health, Love and Luck. Science states that "information travels on waves of energy", Aquamantra states that the affirmations are the information and the water is the energy. "If you are drinking "I Am Healthy", it's because you are resonating with the energy to be healthy", says Teklak. The exquisite simplicity of combining Positive Mental Attitude and Natural Spring Water, was a no-brainer for excited and passionate, Teklak, as she began this journey to stimulate her soul.

"I love the Aquamantra Water. It is refreshing and sweet! I love the mantras and consciously absorbing such thoughts and surrounding myself with such positive energy. I proudly take my water places to showoff this amazing product." - Poppy Moore, Rancho Santa Margarita, CA

The intricate packaging of each of the three bottles also incorporates beautiful engaging artwork from local Orange County artists that drives the interpretation of these "messages in a bottle." Aquamantra pledges a portion of their profits to different charitable organizations. "Its vital that our consumers take part in this process", says Teklak. Consumers can consciously choose which charities they want to support, details can be found at www.aquamantra.com. The website is created as a portal of information and insight about this amazing concept, the science and a community to learn more about how you truly are what you think.

Julie Kenney, founder and president of Jewels and Pinstripes, the company providing the VIP gift bags to Extra's Lounge invitees said of Aquamantra's water, "With this kind of packaging who wouldn't consider this a gift? I'm proud to include Aquamantra in our VIP gift bags for this year's nominees and presenters."
